

Fort Worth Audubon Society Community Civic Grant Program

FWAS Community Civic Grant - Resources to help a project grow

Does your civic organization (or school) birding or bird habitat conservation related project need money for materials and supplies? Or are you an Educator going for training about birding or bird habitat conservation?

If so, the Fort Worth Audubon Society (FWAS) can help!

See if the following qualifications describe your group:

- Would you describe your organization or group as civic, non-profit, or school-based?
- Is your project based in FWAS region (Denton, Johnson, Parker or Tarrant counties)?
- Can your project support the intent of the FWAS mission statement?

FWAS mission statement:

to promote awareness, appreciation and understanding of birds and other wildlife while preserving and protecting their natural habitats.

If your group meets the above qualifications and could use up to $400 of grant money, please fill out the application on the 2nd page and submit it to:

Fort Worth Audubon Society
Attention Grant Chairman
3023 South University Drive, Suite 206
Fort Worth, TX 76109

Application deadline for 2017-2018 is February 15, 2018. Grant awards will be made by March 15, 2018.

Note: *For more information about this offer, please email grants@FWAS.org
When your group has completed your project, FWAS requests a short follow-up report with photos.*

Thanks!
